

Tickets

Calendar of Events

Alyth Arts Week

12 - 19 February 2017

Supporting the North London Hospice

Tickets are on sale from 3 January.
Please book for all events by contacting:

Email: artsweek@alyth.org.uk
Phone: 07790 612 159

Prices:

Evening concert:	£20
Tea Time Recitals:	£10
Film Night:	£10
Meet the Author:	£10
Lectures:	free
Football Rules the World:	£1 (under 16s) £5 (adults)
Theatre:	£10 £5 (students)
Soul Fiesta:	booking essential
Party (class included):	£25
Dance Class only:	£5
Craft Fair:	£2 entry free (under 16s)
V&A archive visit:	£10

limited numbers, booking essential

Under 16s free to all events other than
Football Rules the World and Soul Fiesta

£60 Season Ticket

To include all ticketed events including the Soul Fiesta Party.

Alyth is the leading Progressive Jewish community in the UK. Our communal life includes diverse, innovative and engaging prayer and learning; social and cultural activities; care for each other and engagement with the world around us.

Alyth

To pray. To learn. To live. Together.

Supporting

NORTH LONDON
HOSPICE

25 years of Inpatient Care

For details of events see inside this flyer

ART EXHIBITION

Open daily with free entry and can also be viewed at all events.

Monday–Thursday (10:00–15:00)

Friday (10:00–13:00).

Sunday 12 February

11:00 Lecture: Art of Alyth (Rabbi Josh Levy)

15:00 Private Art Viewing, by invitation only

19:30 Gala Concert: Lawson Piano Trio

Monday 13 February

15:00 Tea Time Recital: Robyn Koh, piano

19:30 Meet the Authors of Alyth

Tuesday 14 February

18:00 Nine Love Letters (Gerald Jacobs, Author)

Wednesday 15 February

15:00 Tea Time Recital: Raphael Lang, cello

17:00 Football Rules the World (Alex Bellos, Author)

19:30 Film Night: Woman in Gold

Thursday 16 February

10:00 V&A archive guided visit

17:00 Lecture: Art of the Sefer Torah
(Rabbi Mark Goldsmith)

19:30 Blink. Theatre performance

Friday 17 February

15:00 Tea Time Recital: Katie Hainbach,
mezzo-soprano

Saturday 18 February

19:00 Salsa dance class

20:00 Soul Fiesta Party

Sunday 19 February

11:00 Lecture: Renaissance and Baroque Synagogues
(Dr. Gordon Higgott)

12:00 Craft Fair

ALYTH SYNAGOGUE
Alyth Gardens, NW11 7EN
artsweek@alyth.org.uk

Authors of Alyth

Q&A with signed copies on sale from the authors

Monday 13 February, 19:30-21:30

Alan Ereira, Leila Segal, Rabbi Mark Goldsmith and Pam Fox talk about their recent publications: 17th Century England, Cuban stories, Spirituality, and a History of the Golders Green Jewish Community respectively.

Tuesday 14 February, 18:00-20:00

Gerald Jacobs, author and Alyth member presents his new book "Nine Love Letters", a heart-rending tale of two families fleeing the horrors of the holocaust. Nine Love Letters is a poignant and tender novel about the enduring power of love across generations, based on real events.

Wednesday 15 February, 17:00-18:00

(For 8-13 year olds, adults welcome) Alex Bellos' children's book, "Football Rules the World".

Lectures

Sunday 12 February, 11:00-12:00

Rabbi Josh Levy will take us around the art works of Alyth; the windows, tapestries, ark door and other commissioned pieces.

Thursday 16 February, 17:00-18:00

Rabbi Mark Goldsmith talks about the art of the Sofer and the beauty of the Torah scroll.

Sunday 19 February, 11:00-12:00

Dr. Gordon Higgott, architectural historian, will give an illustrated talk on Renaissance and Baroque Synagogues.

Film

Wednesday 15 February, 19:30-22:00

WOMAN IN GOLD (2015)

Maria Altmann had to flee her native Vienna before the war and now, in her 90s, lives in New York. She learns that a portrait of her aunt, Adele Bloch-Bauer, painted by Gustav Klimt, was stolen by the Nazis from their family home and is now in Belvedere Palace in Vienna. She embarks on a legal campaign to reclaim the picture. Starring Helen Mirren and Ryan Reynolds. Introduction by Julia Weiner, art historian, curator and lecturer.

Music

Sunday 12 February, 19:30-21:30

Gala Concert: Lawson Piano Trio

Recognised both for their performances of the cornerstones of the trio repertoire as well as lesser known works and their own new commissions. The Lawson Trio has appeared at major venues including London's Wigmore Hall, King's Place and the Southbank Centre.

Monday 13 February, 15:00-16:30

Tea Time Recital: Robyn Koh, piano

Robyn was educated at Chetham's School of Music in Manchester and has been the recipient of many awards, including from the Craxton Memorial Trust and the Young Concert Artist's Trust. She will be performing music by Byrd, Frescobaldi, Purcell, Handel, Rameau, JS Bach, D. Scarlatti, CPE Bach and Arne & Duphy.

Wednesday 15 February, 15:00-16:30

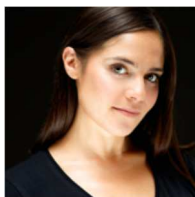

Tea Time Recital: Raphael Lang, cello

Raphael is a French-American cellist. At the Royal Academy, he was the winner of the May Mukle Prize 2011, the David Martin/Florence Hooton Prize 2012, and the Wolfe Wolfensohn Prize 2014. He will be performing music by Samuel Barber, Ludwig van Beethoven and Simon Laks.

Friday 17 February, 15:00-16:30

Katie Hainbach, mezzo-soprano

Katie is a passionate recitalist and as a student she was an active member of the Guildhall Song Guild. In addition to being Head of Music and Arts at Alyth, she regularly performs in recital and oratorio throughout the UK and abroad and has performed as part of the chorus at Grange Park and Garsington. She will be performing pieces by Fauré, Duparc, Debussy and Poulenc.

Blink. Theatre

Thursday 16 February, 19:30-21:30

A dynamic creative theatre company that focuses on the ethics of human interaction. Benjamin Victor, Artistic Director and Alyth member, will use this opportunity to perform one of his plays.

Art Exhibition

Naomi Alexander, Bettina Caro and 19 other artists' works for you to view and purchase

Monday 13th to Thursday 16th 10:00 - 15:00

Friday 17th 10:00 - 13:00

Free to all and open during all Arts Week events
Private view by invitation only on Sunday 12 at 15:00

Craft Fair

Sunday 19 February, 12:00 - 18:00

Local craftspeople will display paintings, ceramics, sculpture, woodwork, jewellery, glasswork, leatherwork, knitted and embroidered handmade garments, picture frames, candles and other miscellaneous craft works for sale.

Salsa Dance Class

Saturday 18 February, 19:00 - 20:00

Come and get some cool moves for the party later.
Professional instructor will take you through the steps.

Soul Fiesta Party

Saturday 18 February, 20:00 - 23:00

A high impact cosmopolitan band based in London but made up of musicians from Latin America and across the world. They are a regular fixture in London's Latin clubs, and have performed for the last 10 years all over the world.
Includes one free cocktail and nibbles.

V&A Archive of Art and Design Tour

Thursday 16 February, 10:00 - 12:00

A private tour of Blythe House with Rabbi Mark Goldsmith and Viv Bellos to view the UK's leading collection of archives of applied art and design. The tour includes the working archives and private papers of 28 Jewish designers and practitioners. There will be a chance to hear about the life and work of some of the designers and to see a selection of their work.

See www.vam.ac.uk for more information.