Regular Learning

Judaism - The Essentials: Short Course on The Calendar

Wednesdays, 20:00-21:45

'Essentials' is our programme of short courses for all those who want to ensure that their Judaism has firm foundations. Taught by Rabbi Josh and Jon Epstein. For more information contact josh@alyth.org.uk.

18 Reviewing the Tishrei Festivals, and The Synagogue

In November we begin a new short course on Jewish Texts.

Hebrew reading from Scratch

Wednesday 18 October, 19:00-20:00

Taught by Alyth member Jan Roseman, who has been one of the UK's leading Synagogue-based Jewish educators for the last few decades. Take an hour a week in term time to learn to read Hebrew from scratch.

Talmud Class

Thursdays 19 & 26 October, 13:00-14:15

Our stimulating and friendly class which is open to all levels of Jewish knowledge. Join Rabbi Mark to grapple with the ideas of our classical rabbis. Contact mark@alyth.org.uk.

Other Learning

Monthly Midrash in the Morning - The Genesis Stories through the Eyes of the Rabbis

Sunday 22 October, 10:30-11:30

Midrash is the rabbinic exercise of biblical interpretation, creating new ideas and stories out of the biblical text. Join Rabbi Josh as we look at these highlights of rabbinic creativity over Danish, fruit and coffee. Over the next few months we will look at Genesis through the eyes of the Rabbis.

Shabbat Shiurim

Sukkot Shiur: The Sugyot Every Reform Jew Should Know

Saturday 7 October, 9:15-10:15

A sugya is a discrete section of the Babylonian Talmud. In these sessions with Rabbi Josh, we look at sugyot which are especially important, insightful or entertaining, and which every educated Jew should know about.

In this Sukkot special we will look at the obvious Sukkot question - 'Can you make a sukkah from the side of an elephant'?

Shiur: Parashat Lech Lecha - Is Circumcision a Thing of the Past?

Saturday 28 October, 9:15-10:15

In this week's portion we read about Brit Milah, the covenant of circumcision. At a time when an increasing number of Jews are choosing not to have their children circumcised, is it now an outdated ritual? How do we justify a gendered childhood ritual in a community which prides itself on equality as a core value?

Join Rabbi Hannah to explore traditional and modern sources and ask the question - is circumcision a thing of the past?

New Music Morning

Saturday 21 October, 9:15-10:15

An opportunity to learn and sing new liturgical music with Rabbi Josh and Katie Hainbach. We will learn a number of new pieces which will be sung across our range of services, as well as discussing how the music fits the liturgy. This morning is suitable for everyone and you do not need to read sheet music. Contact katie@alyth.org.uk.

Thank you and good bye

After almost 20 years of working and living at Alyth, Alan Lee, our Facilities Manager has decided to retire and move back home to Crewe. We wish him and Sue all the best and thank them for their years of dedication to Alyth.

Also this month

Sukkot Half Hour

Friday 6 October, 17:45-18:15

Sukkot is a multi-layered festival, celebrating nature, remembering the Exodus and recognising the fragility of our possessions.

Join Rabbi Mark to explore what these themes mean for us.

Alyth Film Club Special - World Mental Health Day: Dina

Tuesday 10 October, 19:30-22:00

To mark World Mental Health Day we are showing the film 'Dina' which tells the story of an eccentric suburban woman and a Walmart door greeter navigating their evolving relationship in this unconventional love story. The film will be followed by a short discussion with Rabbi Colin Eimer and Lynette Sunderland.

The Cairo Genizah Cambridge University Library Outing

Wednesday 18 October, 9:00-18:00

For a thousand years the Jewish community of Old Cairo put their worn-out writings into a synagogue storage room, a genizah. Join Rabbi Mark and the scholars who bring the genizah to life to explore one of the greatest collections of Cambridge University Library and a remarkable survival of the medieval past. Cost of trip is £25 which includes transport from and back to Alyth and admissions. Contact office@alyth.org.uk to book your place.

The Alyth Book Club

Tuesday 31 October, 20:00-22:00

Join Rabbi Josh for the new Alyth Book Club. Every two months we will come together to discuss a Jewish book over light refreshments and a glass of wine. Over the months we will read a range of works from across the religious spectrum. Our first book will be "Putting God Second: How to Save Religion from Itself" by Rabbi Donniel Hartman. The book is available for kindle and in paperback from retailers including amazon.co.uk and bookdepository.com.

Please let Rabbi Josh know that you are coming at josh@alyth.org.uk.

Jewish School Admission Form Signings

Throughout October:

Tues 3, 18:00-19:30

Sun 15, 9:00-10:45

Tues 17, 20:00-21:30

Weds 25, 18:00-19:30

The Alyth team is delighted to support your application for admission to a Jewish school.

These dates are available for signing school admission forms for those who have already completed the required number of service attendances.

These sessions will be by appointment only. Contact Saskia at office@alyth.org.uk to book.

If you have been collecting Shul Sheets to show synagogue attendance, please remember to bring them with you.
