He was educated in the Orthodox track of the Israeli education system and in a B'nei Akiva Yeshivah. Following his army service as a Religious Affairs Officer, he left the Orthodox way of life and enrolled in secular studies at Haifa University. ## Shavuot Morning Learning Sunday 9 June

09:15 Shavuot Shiur:

Was Torah given by God to Moses on Mount Sinai?

Central to Orthodox Judaism is the belief that two sets of laws, the Written and Oral Torah, were given by God to Moses on Mount Sinai in one moment of revelation.

Central to Reform Judaism is a belief in Progressive Revelation over time, and that our earlier texts were—at least partly—written by human beings.

What is the evidence? Together we will examine some of the textual sources cited in support of both views. With Rabbi Josh.
