SEDER

First cup of wine

During our Seder we will pour,
Glasses of wine numbered four,
Each one will show a different thing,
Which our total freedom will bring.
Today our first cup shows us all,
United we stand, divided we fall,
When we work as a team think of what we can bring
Stand together like the Avengers - we can do anything!

Karpas

We eat karpas at the beginning of our meal,
So that hunger we do not feel.
We dip it in water mixed with salt,
Like the tears of slaves building with asphalt.
But salt is also a symbol of wealth,
It helps us to think of times of good health.
Remy the rat wanted to be,
A chef in Paris, the French city,
But restaurants aren't so fond of rats,
They chase them round with baseball bats.
He hides in the hat of the garbage boy,
Who cooks his recipes as a decoy.
Remy learns to chase his dreams,
And that everyone works better in teams!

פְּרֵי הָאָדָמָה :

Blessed are You, our Living God, Sovereign of the universe, who creates the fruit of the earth.

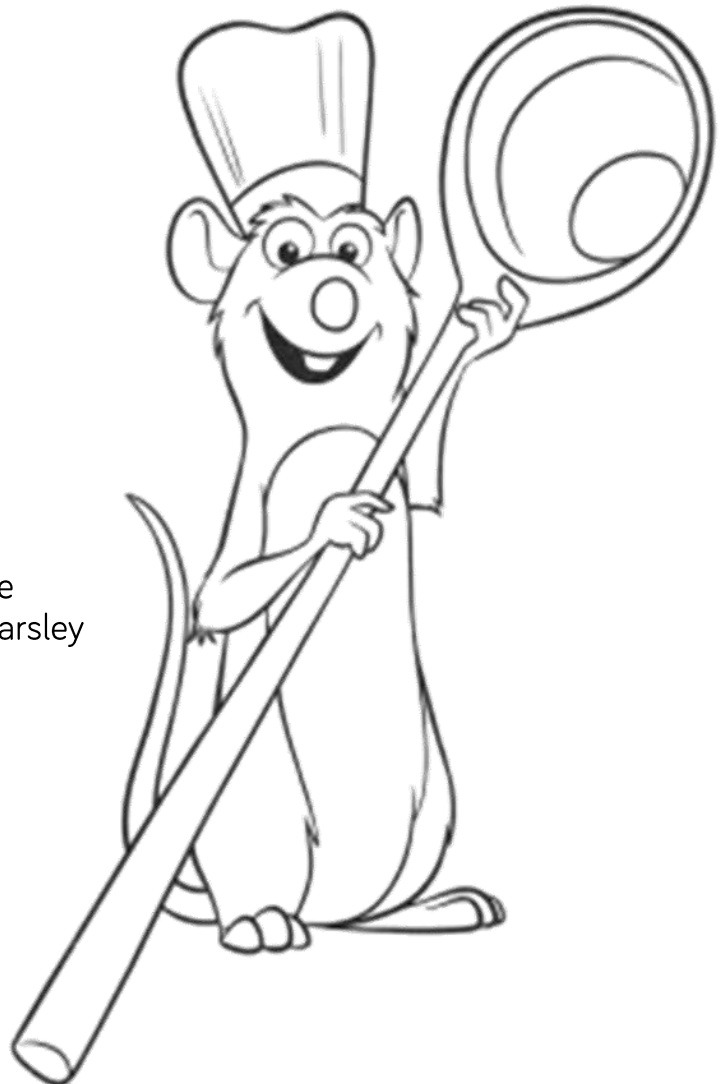

Let's cook some ratatouille with Remy.

Ingredients:

- Aubergines
- Peppers
- Courgettes
- Passata
- Garlic
- Parsley

Method:

1. Chop all the vegetables into a large dice
2. Mix the passata with some garlic and parsley
3. Stir the vegetables through the sauce
4. Cook in the oven

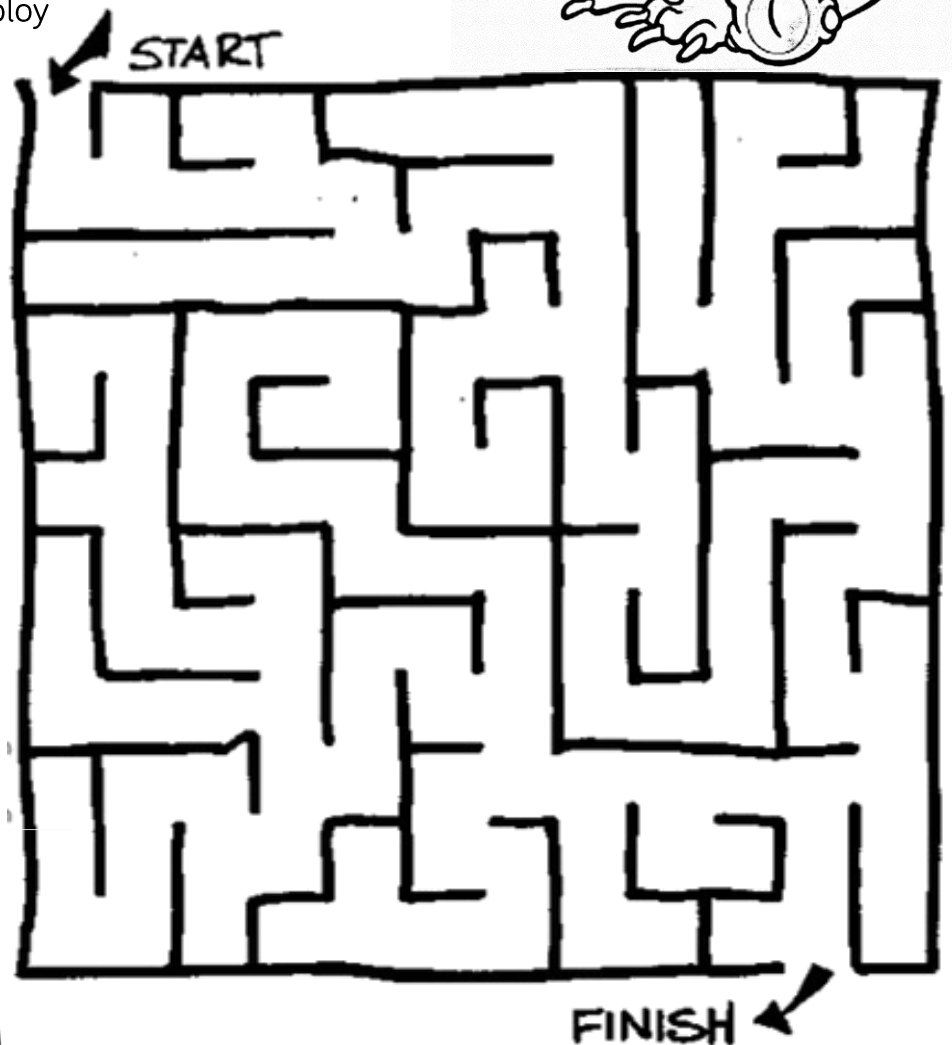

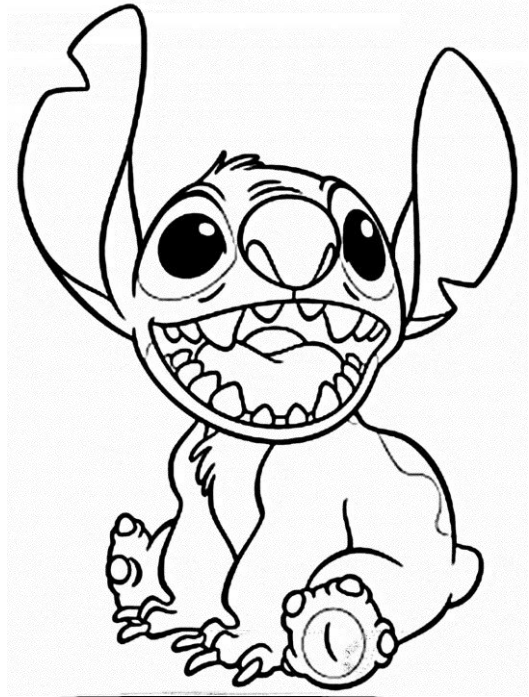

Breaking Matzah

On the table you will see,
A group of matzah numbered three,
Each one there to represent,
A part of our journey to present.

The first matzah is the bread of slavery,
The third is the one we eat when we're free,
And in the middle is the bread we ate,
When we were leaving Egypt, but running late!

We break the middle matzah in half,
Because it reminds us of our journey with Moses and his staff
We hope this journey will bring us joy,
In a future where freedom is our ploy

As we hide the bigger bit,
Ready for later when you find it,
Help Stitch find her way to Lilo,
So, he can help their ohana grow!

Four questions

Look at this night, isn't it neat
Wouldn't you think we'd have bread to eat?
Wouldn't you think we're the shul,
The shul who has everything.
Look at this stove,
My food's not cold,
Dinner on table,
The story is told,
Lookin' around here you think,
Sure, we've got everything.

We've got parsley, charoset a plenty!
We've got lamb bones and matzah galore,
You want cinnamon balls, we've got twenty,
But who cares, no big deal,
There's maror!

I wanna be where free Jews are,
I wanna see, wanna see them leaning,
Reclining back on those...
What do you call them? Oh chairs!

All other nights we can sit up straight,
Eating our dinner, upright or slanting,
Tonight alone why do we...
What's it called...recline?

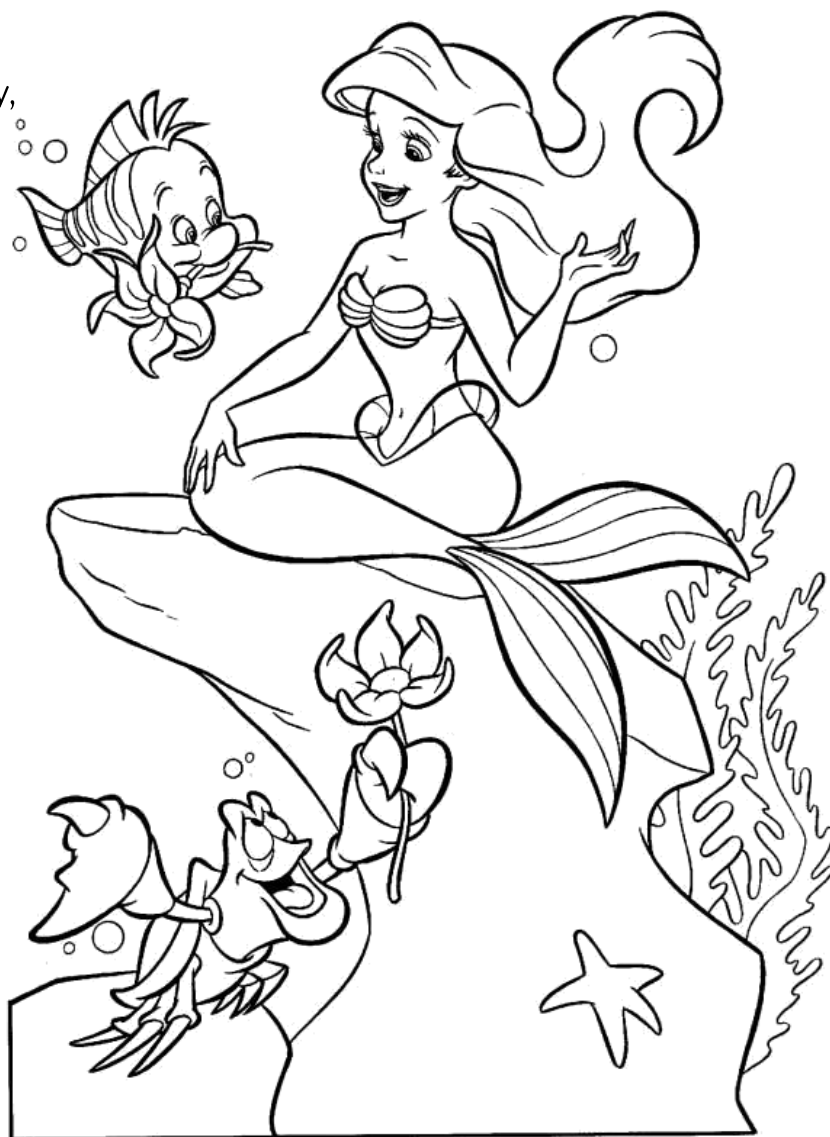

Oh, on all other nights, they let bread rise,
Tonight we get a crunchy surprise,
Why's our bread flat, like a door mat,
Matzah's our world

What would I give, if I could dip,
In salty waters?
If I had a dime, for every time,
I dipped my food...

Betcha it's twice, not even nice,
Why do we reprimand our taste buds?
Food that's bitter,
Not for quitters,
Only tonight...

And I'm ready to eat what the free Jews eat,
Ask them my questions and get some answers?
What's a herb? And why does it?
What's the word, burn?

Tonight it's our turn. Wouldn't we love,
To answer the questions listed above?
Tonight we are free, wish we could be,
In Jerusalem?

10 Plagues

The blood runs red off the mountain tonight,
Not a live fish to be seen,
Now frogs jump on the nation,
All we can see is green.
And now were itching from the crawling lice outside,
Couldn't keep them off, heaven knows I've tried.

Don't keep them in, just let them free,
Throw the Jews out and let our city be,
They're slaves, don't cave, don't let them go,
Well now they'll go...

Let them go, let them go,
Don't hold them back anymore
Let them go, let them go,
Go out from Egypt's door.
I don't care, is what Pharaoh says,
Let the Jews stay on,
The plagues never bothered us anyways

It's funny how some wild beasts, makes the lice seem so small,
And then the cows that once controlled me, don't remain alive at all.
It's time to see what Jews can do,
If they push Pharaoh's limits too,
10 plagues, so wrong, no rules for me,
If you let me free,

Let them go, let them go,
Before the boils make us writhe,
Let them go, let them go,
The itching will make you cry,
Here we stand, we don't want to stay,
Let the plagues rage on

The hail rains down through the air into the ground,
Turning to fire from those frozen fractals all around,
And then the locusts jump up from the icy blasts,
If you don't hold us back, plagues will be in the past!

Let them go, let them go,
Now I can't see you anymore,
Let us go, let us go,
They turned off the lights for sure,
Here we stand, there's no light this day,
Let the angel of death fly on...
The plagues never bothered us anyway...

Dayyeinu

If Mother Gothel had stolen the flower and not locked Rapunzel in a tower...
It would be enough.

If Rapunzel had seen the lights but listened to Pascal and not left the tower...
It would be enough.

If Rapunzel had met Flynn Rider but not followed him to the Ugly Duckling...
It would be enough.

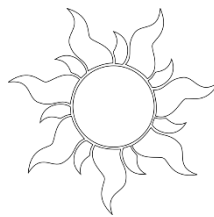

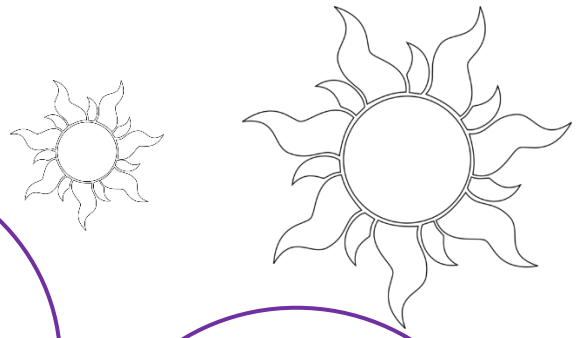

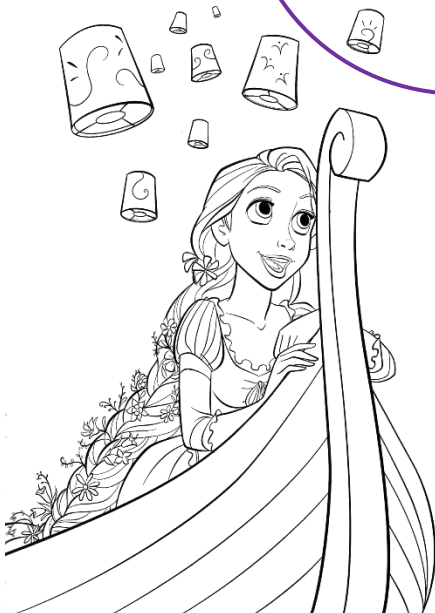

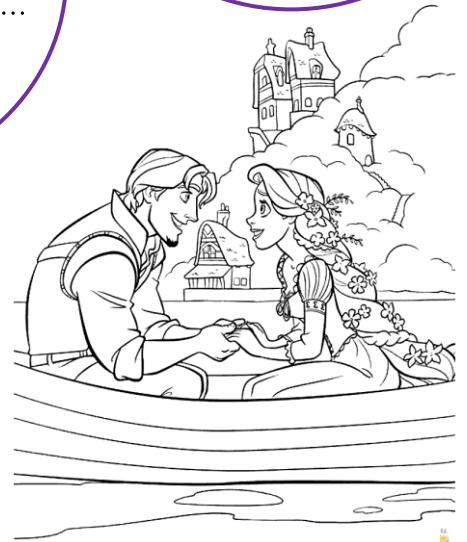

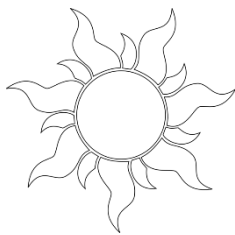

If Flynn had given the crown to the Ugly Duckling thugs but escaped from them...
It would be enough.

If Mother Gothel had stolen Rapunzel back and Rapunzel had not realised her paintings were the Royal emblem...
It would be enough.

If Mother Gothel found out about the paintings but Flynn hadn't found Rapunzel...
It would be enough.

If Rapunzel had fought back, stopped Mother Gothel but didn't go and find her family...
It would be enough.

If we can live happily ever after, just like this story...
That would be enough.

You have 2 blank page of a comic book.

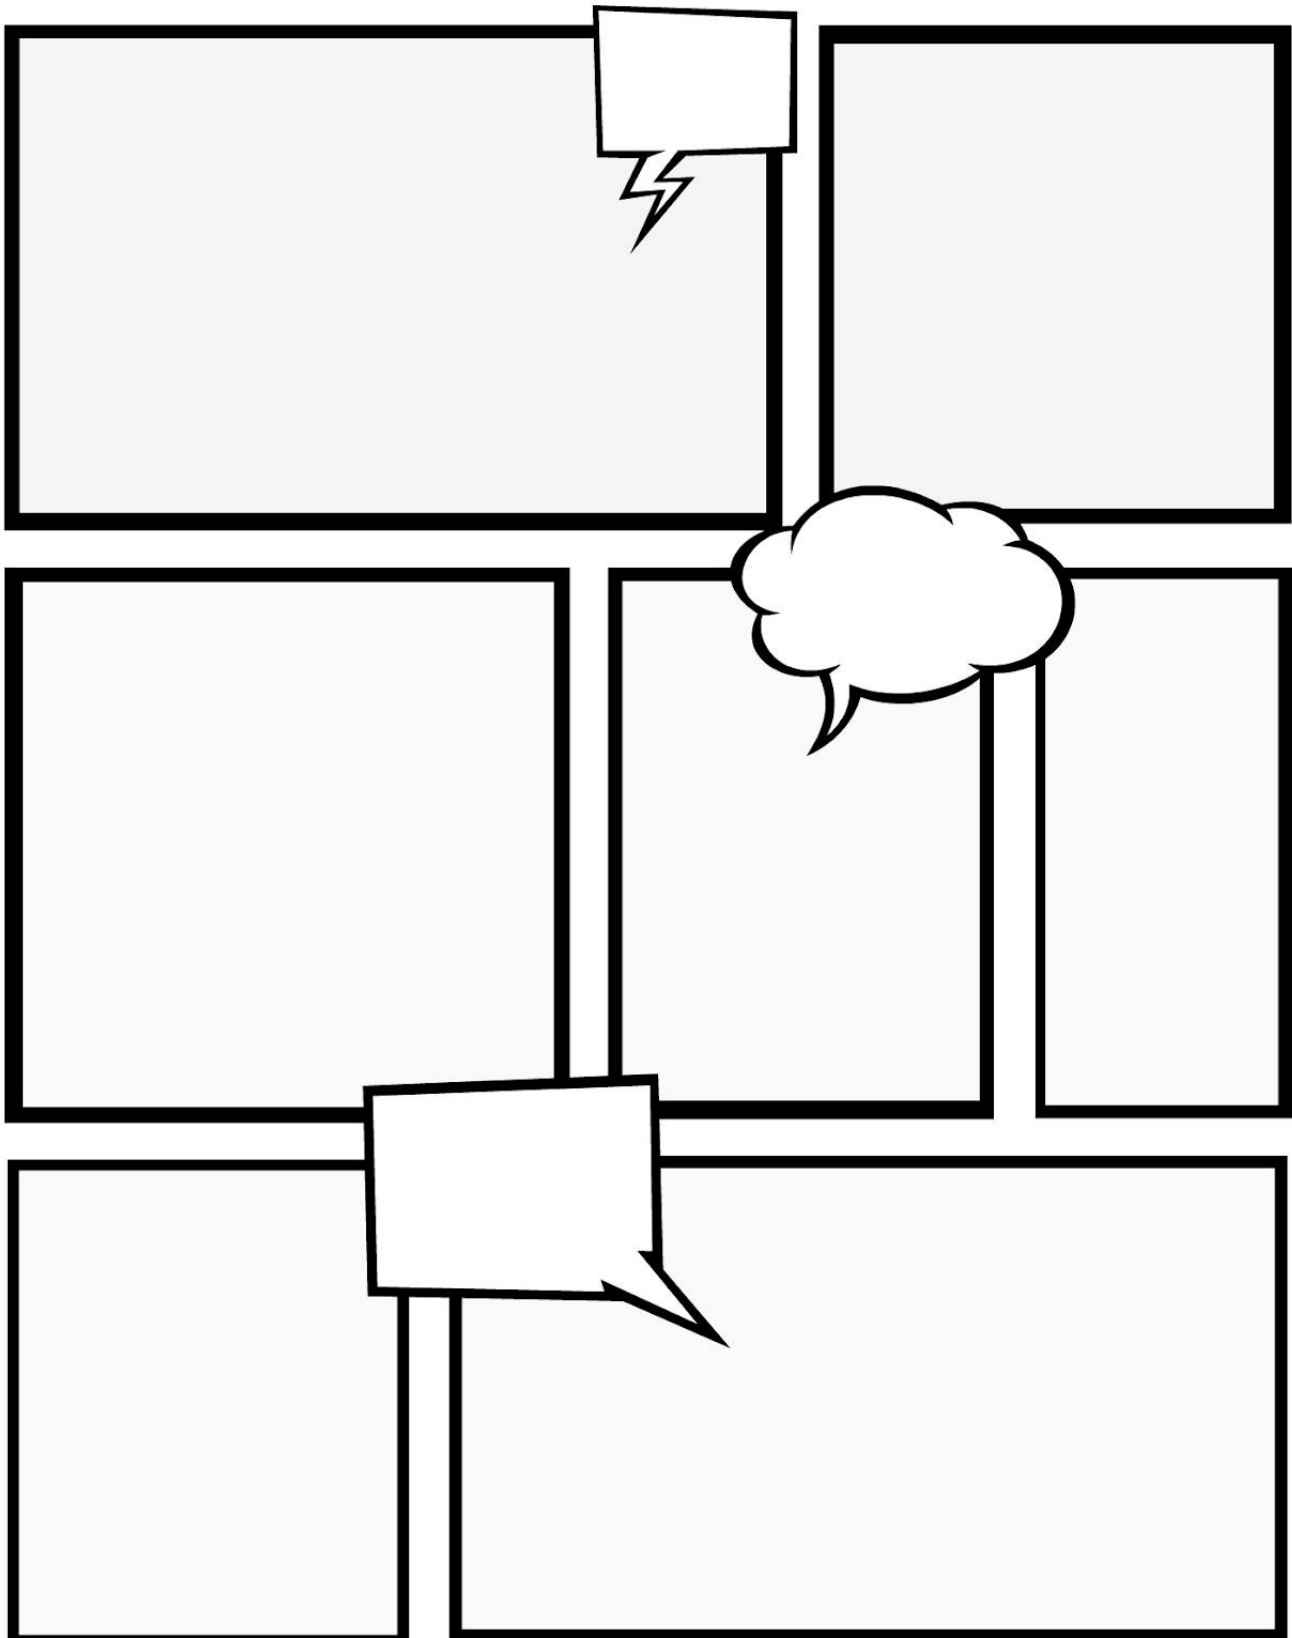

Can you design your own Dayeinu comic? At each stage of your story or the idea you're drawing, what would have been enough?

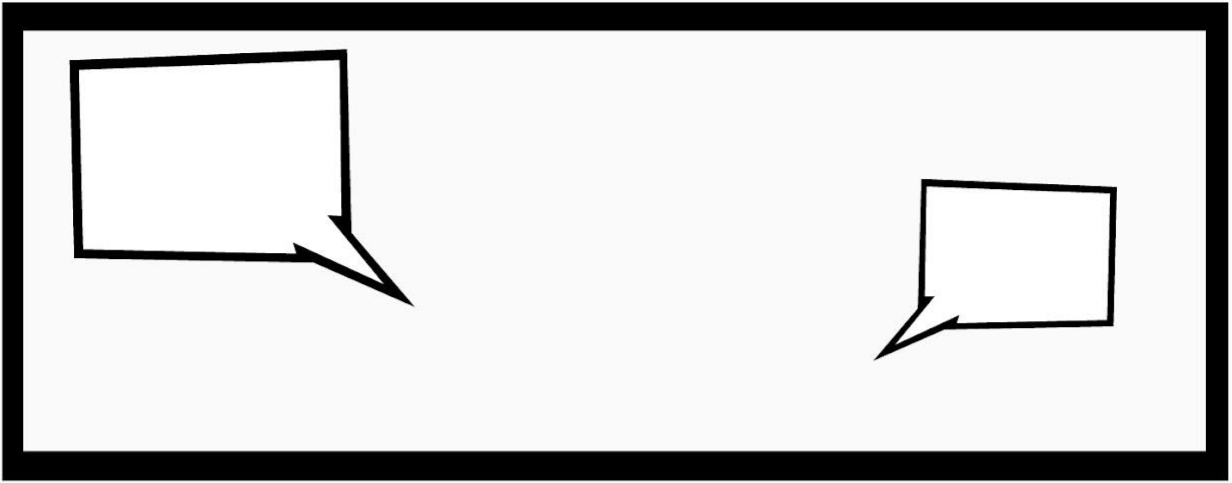

Handy hint: make sure you know where you end up! You might want to write down your ideas to make sure it fits. You don't have to use both comic pages.

Use the Rapunzel Dayeinu as an example. You can use your favourite film or the Pesach story!

If we had just had matzah to eat, it would have been enough!

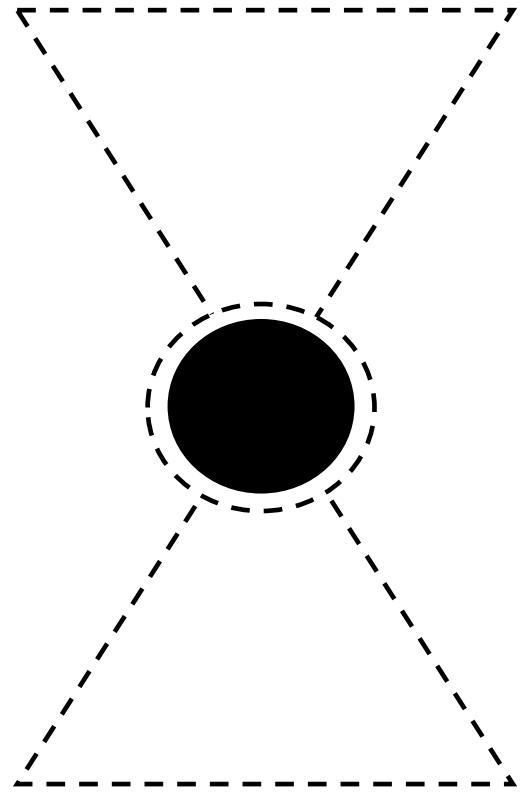

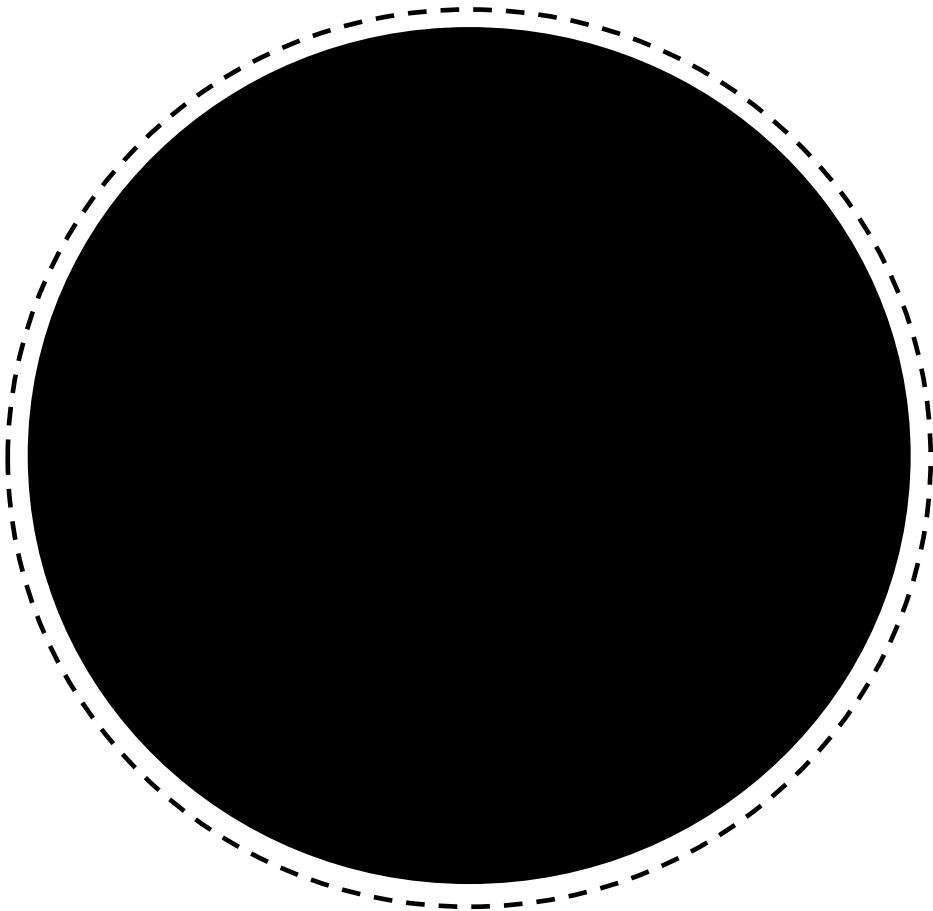

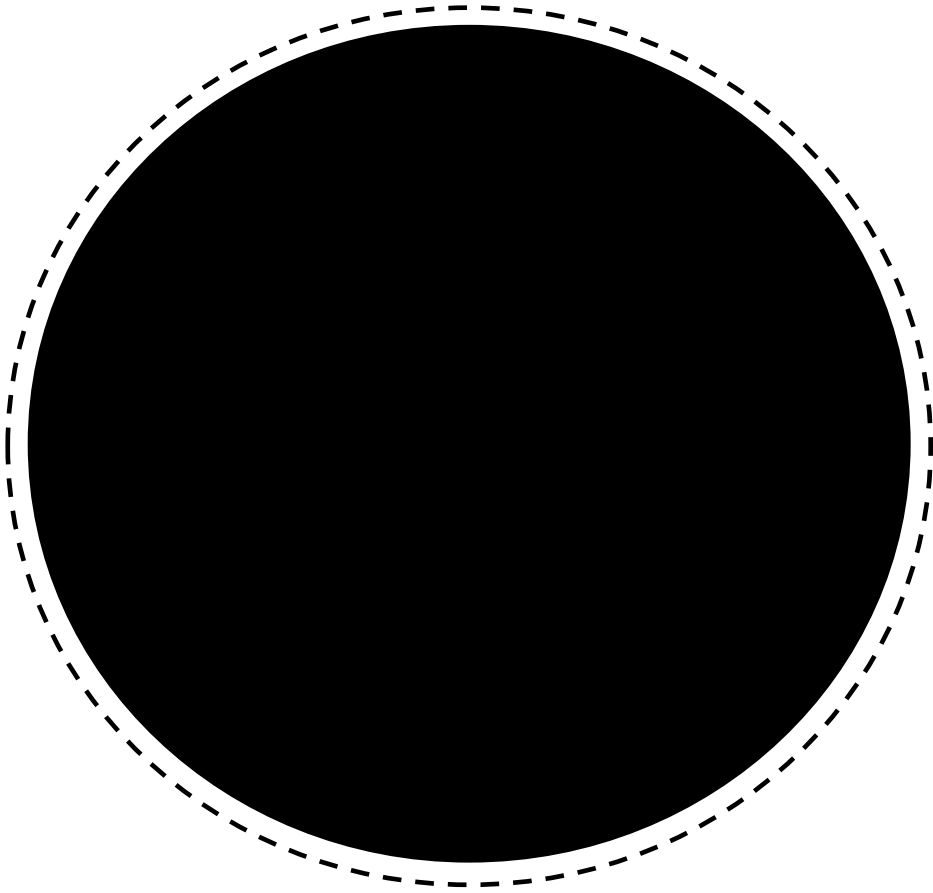

Each frame should end with "It would have been enough"

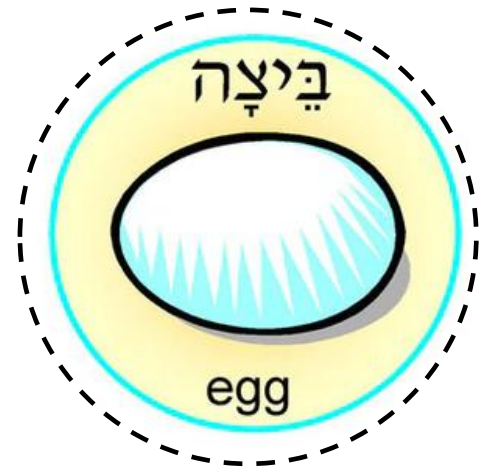

Seder plate

Cut out the ears and bow and make your Seder plate into Minnie or Mickey Mouse!

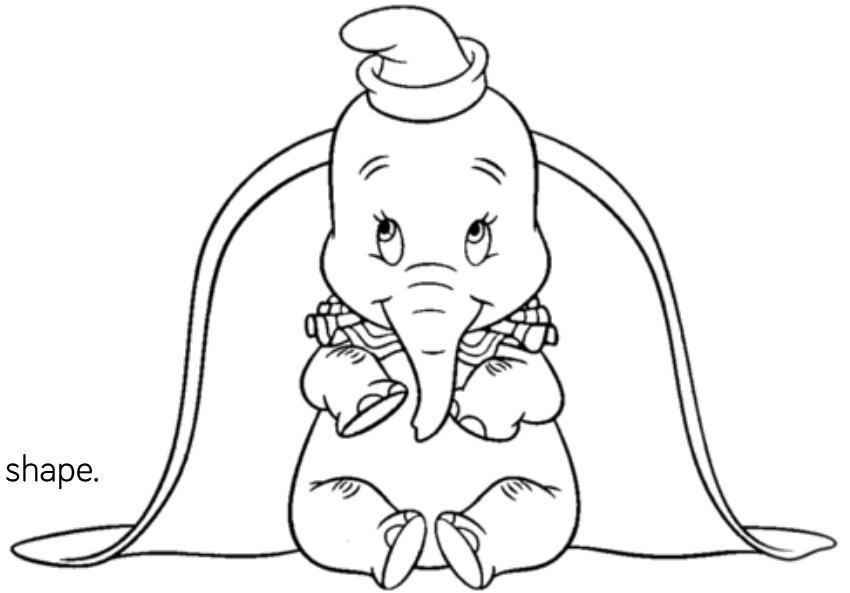

Cut the circles out and stick them on the bottom of the Seder plate, facing upwards!

Second cup

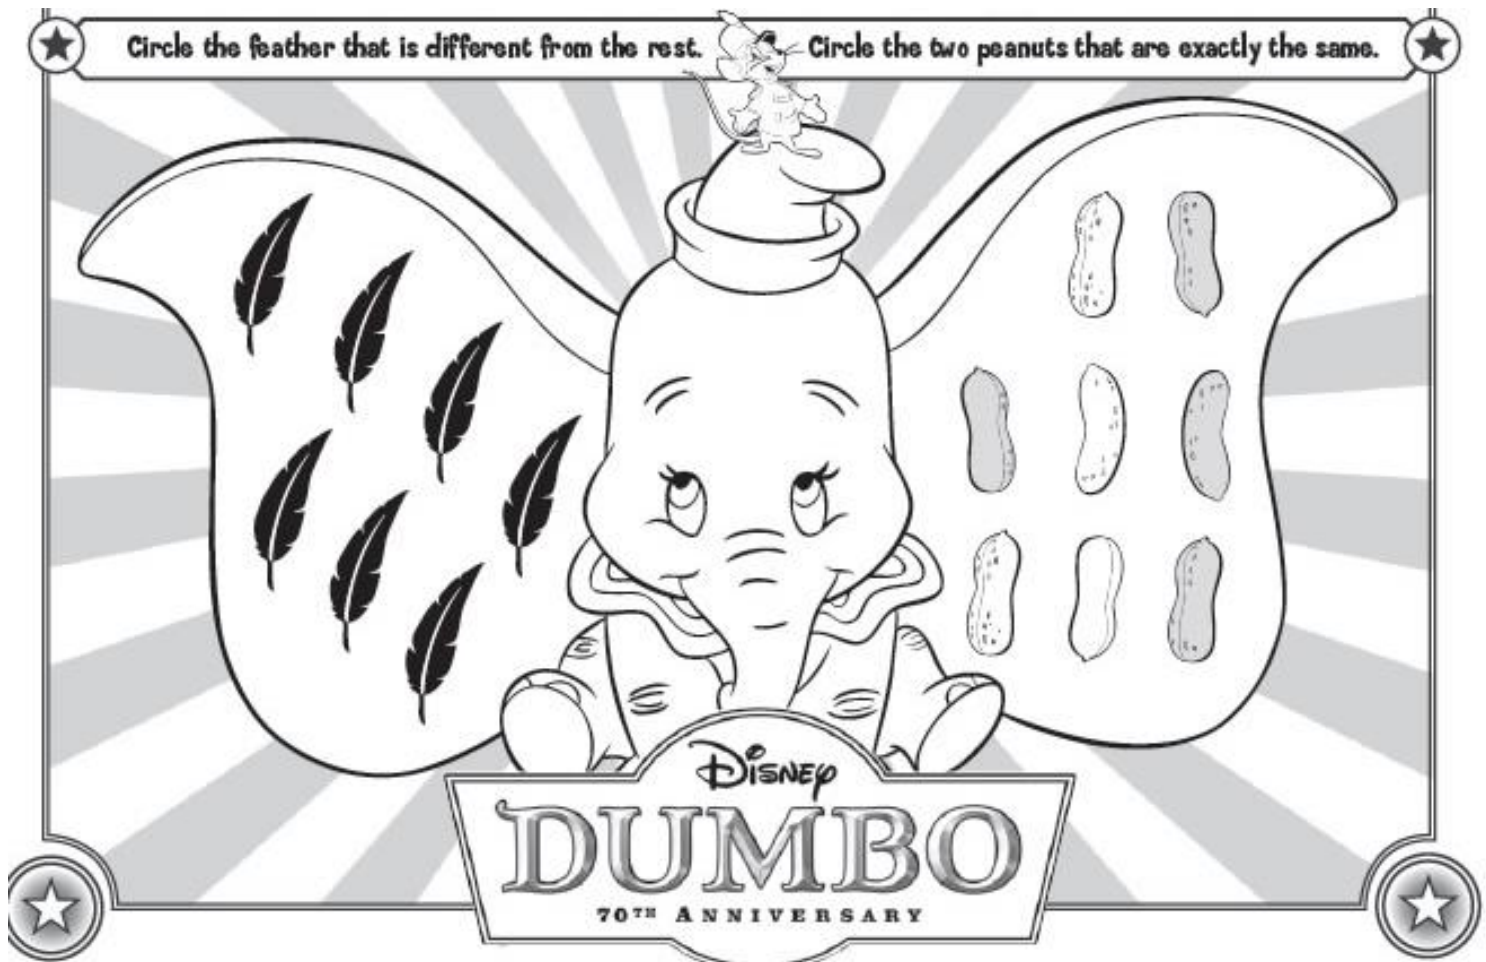

Imagine how it would be,
If you felt truly free.
You wouldn't have to do or play,
The way that other people say.
Dumbo the elephant could really fly,
Around the circus tent so high.
But he wanted to play outside,
With his mum by his side.
So, from the circus he did escape,
And then his freedom he could begin to shape.

Blessed are You, our Living God, Sovereign of the universe, who makes us holy through Your commandments, and commands us to eat Matza.

Oh, back in Egypt long ago,
the Jews were slaves under Pharaoh
They sweated and toiled and labored through the day
So when we gather Pesach night, we do what we think right
Maror, we chew, to feel what they went through

Just a tad of charoset helps the bitter herbs go down,
the bitter herbs go down; the bitter herbs go down
Just a tad of charoset helps the bitter herbs go down,
In the most disguising way

So after years of slavery, they saw no chance of being free
Their suffering was the only life they know
But baby Moses grew up tall, and said he'd save them all
He did, and yet, we swear we won't forget that...

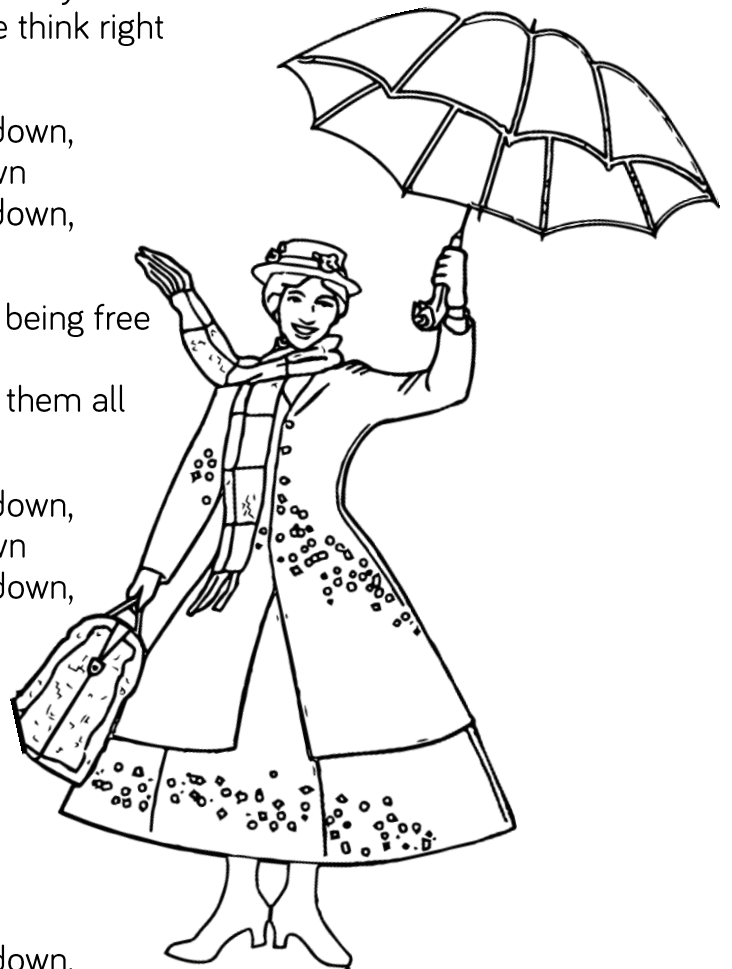

Just a tad of charoset helps the bitter herbs go down,
the bitter herbs go down; the bitter herbs go down
Just a tad of charoset helps the bitter herbs go down,
In the most disguising way

While the maror is being passed,
we all refill our water glass,
Preparing for the taste that turns us red
Although maror seems full of minuses, it sure does clear our sinuses
But, what's to do? It's hard to be a Jew!

Just a tad of charoset helps the bitter herbs go down,
the bitter herbs go down; the bitter herbs go down
Just a tad of charoset helps the bitter herbs go down,
In the most disguising way

Blessed are You, our Living God, Sovereign of the universe, who makes us holy through Your commandments, and commands us to eat Maror.

Third Cup

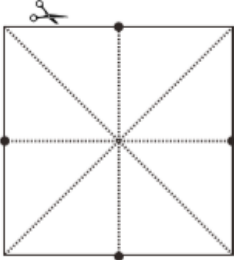

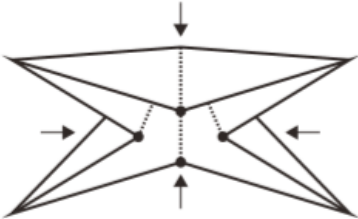

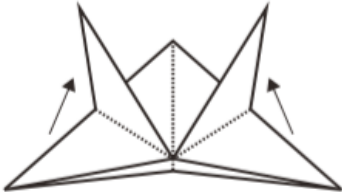

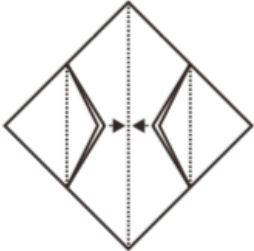

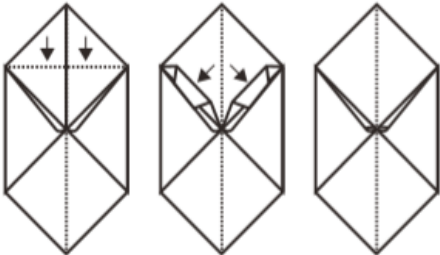

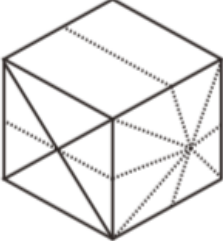

The Guardians of the Galaxy show us we can be,
 True to ourselves – just exactly me.
 They don't judge their friends on how they look,
 They accept all their hobbies: music, art, reading a book.
 They still have adventures with all their friends,
 Travelling the universe from end to end.
 While they're together they feel happy and free,
 Accepting each other, whoever they may be.

 Step 1 Firstly cut out and fold into a diamond shape following the fold marks above repeating the folds so the diamonds gets smaller.	 Step 2 Using the four dots as a marker fold inwards to meet in the middle then flatten to form a triangle.
 Step 3 Fold the two bottom corners upwards to meet the top corner. Then repeat the step on the reverse side.	 Step 4 Fold the two corners inwards to meet in the middle then repeat on the reverse side.
 Step 5 Now we're nearly there, just fold down the two top flaps and repeat on the reverse side. Finally fold again and tuck inside the flaps.	 Step 6 Blow in the hole at the bottom to inflate your Orb!

Fourth Cup

Woody and Buzz and all their friends,
 Escape from each enemy the toybox sends.
 Emperor Zurg, Lotso Bear and Sid,
 Don't have a chance against these kids!
 The Toy Story films teach us to be brave,
 And to seek the adventures that we crave.
 Then like Woody and Buzz we will be free,
 To play and sing in harmony!

Elijah's cup

For the final cup of wine we pour,
We have to open up the door,
And see if Elijah the prophet comes,
And helps our year have better outcomes!
Elijah is our prophet of peace
He helps makes our hopes and wishes increase.
For now our Genie is right here,
To see what your wishes are for the next year?

Next year I want to try _____

Next year I want to help _____

Next year I want to get better at _____

Conclusion

You were our guest,
You were our guest,
You put our seder to the test.
We drank four cups of wine,
And forgot all the rest!
We saw children numbered four,
Let Elijah in the door
Tried the Matzah, it's delicious,
Don't believe me ask the dishes.
Ate Maror,
And Karpas,
And we barely made a fuss!
Asked some questions that will help us on our quest!
We found the afikomen,
That words Greco-Roman,
You were our guest, were our guest, were our guest!
