- 6.2 A Trustee may not be an employee of the Charity, but a Connected Person may enter into a contract with the Charity to supply services or goods to the Charity in return for a payment or other material benefit if:
- 6.2.1 the services or goods are actually required by the Charity;
 - 6.2.2 the nature and level of the payment or benefit is no more than is reasonable in relation to the value of the goods or services and recorded in an agreement in writing;

7. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- 7.1 To the extent required by law every Trustee must disclose to the Charity all matters in which they or a Connected Person has an interest which could, directly or indirectly, conflict with the interests of the Charity.
- 7.2 To the extent required by law every Trustee is obliged to avoid situations in which they have (or could have) a direct or indirect interest that conflicts (or could conflict) with the interests of the Charity. Where a Trustee is unable to avoid such a situation, this obligation is not infringed if:
- 7.2.1 the situation could not reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; or
 - 7.2.2 the matter has been proposed and authorised by the Trustee Board in the manner set out in Article 7.3.
- 7.3 A matter proposed to the Trustee Board, in relation to which a Trustee(s) is/are conflicted, may only be authorised by the Trustee Board where:
- 7.3.1 subject to Article 7.4, any requirements as to the quorum at the Trustee Board meeting at which the matter is considered is met without counting the Trustee(s) in question;
 - 7.3.2 the matter is authorised without the Trustee(s) in question voting on the matter (or would have been agreed to, had their vote not been counted); and
 - 7.3.3 the Trustee(s) in question is/are absent from the Trustee Board meeting for that item unless expressly invited to remain to provide information.
- 7.4 Where there are insufficient Eligible Trustees to form a quorum at a Trustee Board meeting (or part of it) the Eligible Trustees present shall be deemed to form a quorum for the purposes of authorising the matter proposed to them under Article 7.2.2 provided that:
- 7.4.1 they are satisfied that the Trustee(s) in question will not receive any direct or indirect benefit other than one permitted by these Articles; and
 - 7.4.2 the total number of Trustees at the Trustee Board meeting is equal to or higher than the usual quorum for the Trustee Board.
- 7.5 Subject to Article 7.6, where a Trustee or Connected Person has a direct or indirect interest in any proposed transaction or arrangement with the Charity, the Trustee must:

- 7.5.1 declare the nature and extent of that interest either at a Trustee Board meeting or by written notice before the Charity enters into the transaction or arrangement;

- 7.6 Notwithstanding Article 7.5, a Trustee who is interested in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Charity may participate in the decision-making process and count towards the quorum for that part of the Trustee Board meeting, and be permitted to vote, if the proposed transaction or arrangement is one falling within Article 7.7 (a permitted cause).
- 7.7 This Article applies when a Trustee's interest in a proposed transaction or arrangement cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest, or the Trustee's conflict of interest arises from any of the following permitted causes:
- 7.7.1 where the proposed transaction or arrangement is one which applies to the Trustee(s) in question in common with other third parties and there is no benefit to the Trustee(s) in question over and above that afforded to such third parties;
 - 7.7.2 any transaction or arrangement with a charity of which a Trustee is a charity trustee or with which a Trustee is otherwise connected and which is in furtherance of the Objects of the Charity and which does not confer a personal benefit on the Trustee, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, any exercise by the Trustee Board of the power exercisable by them under Article 5.1.28;
 - 7.7.3 any transaction or arrangement with a company limited by shares or a company limited by guarantee which is wholly owned by the Charity (or the Charity and other charities) and in which a Trustee does not have an interest otherwise than as an unpaid director and which does not confer a personal benefit on the Trustee; and
 - 7.7.4 where the benefit is so negligible or minimal that it could not reasonably be regarded as giving rise to a conflict of interest.
- 7.8 Subject to Article 7.9, if a question arises at a Trustee Board meeting as to the right of a Trustee to participate in the Trustee Board meeting (or part of the Trustee Board meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the Trustee Board meeting, be referred to the Chair (or Co-Chairs) whose ruling in relation to any Trustee other than the Chair (or Co-Chair) shall be final and conclusive.
- 7.9 If any question as to the right to participate in the Trustee Board meeting (or part of the Trustee Board meeting) should arise in respect of the Chair (or Co-Chair), the question is to be decided by a decision of the Trustee Board at that Trustee Board meeting, for which purpose the Chair (or Co-Chair) shall not be counted as participating in the Trustee Board meeting (or that part of the Trustee Board meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

8. COMPANY MEMBERS' LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 9.2 Notwithstanding that the Trustees are the Company Members, when acting in their different capacities as Trustees or Company Members (as the case may be) there shall, for the avoidance of doubt, be a distinction as to their liabilities, responsibilities and obligations and additionally their governance, in accordance with these Articles, the Act and all other governing legislation and regulations.
- 9.3 A Company Member shall cease to be a Company Member automatically upon ceasing to be a member of the Trustee Board.
- 9.4 Congregants shall have the rights and duties set out in Article 13 and in the Rules but will not be Company Members for the purposes of company law and will not have the right to attend and vote at General Meetings of the Charity but instead may attend and vote at General Meetings of the Congregants.

- 10.2 Notice of General Meetings of the Charity shall be given, and General Meetings of the Charity shall be held, in accordance with the Act.

- 10.4 Any of the Company Members can take part in a General Meeting of the Charity by way of:
- 10.4.1 video conference or conference telephone or similar equipment designed to allow everybody to take part in the meeting; or

- 10.5 Taking part in this way will be treated as being present at the meeting. A meeting which takes place by a series of video conferences or telephone calls from the Chair will be treated as taking place where the Chair is. Otherwise, meetings will be treated as taking place where the largest group of the participants are or, if there is no such group, where the Chair is unless the Trustee Board decide otherwise.
- 10.6 A resolution put to the vote of the General Meeting of the Charity shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded in accordance with the Act.
- 10.7 A declaration by the Chair that a resolution has been passed shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

11. GENERAL MEETINGS OF THE CHARITY - VOTING

- 11.1 At a General Meeting of the Charity every Company Member shall have one vote to be cast by the Company Member either personally or by proxy.

- 11.2 No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the General Meeting of the Charity or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chair (or Co-Chairs) whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
- 11.3 Every Company Member shall be entitled to appoint another person as their proxy in accordance with the Act.
- 11.4 Proxies may only be validly appointed by a notice in writing (a proxy notice) which states the name and address of the Company Member appointing the proxy, identifies the person appointed as proxy and the General Meeting of the Charity in relation to which they are appointed, is signed by or on behalf of the Company Member and is delivered to the Charity in accordance with these Articles.
- 11.5 The Trustee Board may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form.
- 11.6 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or to abstain from voting) on one or more resolution.
- 11.7 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as allowing the person appointed as proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the General Meeting of the Charity and appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the General Meeting of the Charity to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.
- 11.8 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the General Meeting of the Charity or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 11.9 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Charity a notice given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- 11.10 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

13.4 Meetings of the Congregants shall be called and held in accordance with the Rules which will set out the process for giving notice of and the conduct of proceedings at such meetings. In exceptional circumstances, where it may not be practicable (for safety or other reasons) to hold a General Meeting of the Congregants in person, the Trustee Board may set out such other procedures as they consider appropriate in order to enable a virtual or electronic meeting to take place in which all Congregants can hear each other and participate in the meeting. In such circumstances any such procedures shall take precedence over the provisions set out in the Rules.

13.5 The Trustee Board will ensure that in each year there is at least one General Meeting of the Congregants which shall be known as the Annual Meeting of Congregants which shall conduct such business as is set out in the Rules provided that an Annual Meeting of Congregants shall not be required to be held in the calendar year 2020, where the Trustee Board consider it is not possible to hold such meeting safely.
