

Indoors In-Person Services at Alyth after 19 July 2021

Pre booking

All Alyth in-person services must be pre-booked. Those who have not pre-booked will not be allowed to enter the Alyth premises.

You can only pre-book if you are a member of Alyth in good standing. If you are not a member, or have not paid this year's subscription, please contact Sam at sam@alyth.org.uk or 020 8457 8796.

Pre-booking will involve signing up to our 'Covenant of Responsibility for Entry to Indoors In-Person Services' (overleaf).

This includes a promise to take a Lateral Flow Test to check Covid status on the same day as the service before attending Alyth. This is not required for those who are doubly vaccinated, though you may choose to do so, as vaccination is not a guarantee that you cannot catch or transmit Covid. A Lateral Flow Test can be ordered online at: <https://www.gov.uk/order-coronavirus-rapid-lateral-flow-tests> or collected from a local pharmacy.

Important Information

Please note that

- There will not be allocated seating, but seating will be socially distanced. There will be 100 bookable seats in the Alyth Beit Tefillah (approximately one third of our pre-Covid capacity)
- There will be access to toilets but there will be nowhere to leave coats or belongings
- There will be no entry to the Alyth building until 10 minutes before the service begins
- There will be no access to the Alyth kitchen. Please bring your own water if needed
- There will be no Kiddush or refreshments
- Members of the Alyth staff team will not be shaking hands, or fist/elbow bumping

Mask wearing

Please remember to bring a mask which you will be expected to wear at all times on the Alyth premises (both indoors and outside) when not in your seat, unless under 12 or exempt.

You must not come to Alyth when...

You must not attend this service if you:

- are unwell
- have tested positive and are within the isolation period
- have been advised to self-isolate after contact with a positive Covid case or to quarantine after travel

If you pre-book and are then unable to attend, please let us know by email to mail@alyth.org.uk as soon as possible so that this seat can be offered to someone else. Repeated non-attendance will mean that we ask you not to book again in future.

Covenant of Responsibility for Entry to Indoors In-Person Services

At a time when SARS-CoV-2 is endemic in society, we must all be aware of our ongoing responsibility for each other's well-being. Coming into Alyth for an in-person service is to enter into a Covenant of Responsibility for those around us. We ask that you do not pre-book for services unless you are willing to adhere to the terms of this Covenant.

Alyth will

Ensure that there is a range of risk mitigations in place, including:

Placing a limit on attendance (approximately one third of pre-Covid capacity) to ensure that there is distancing in the Beit Tefillah

Ensuring that the Beit Tefillah is as well ventilated as possible

Providing clear signage and routes so that members know where to go and to reduce bottlenecks

Providing hand sanitising stations, including for use by all attendees on arrival and on entering the building

Ensuring that cleaning of the building, including toilets, takes place before services

Ensuring that all staff, whatever their level of vaccination, have taken Lateral Flow Tests

Those pre-booking will

Not attend if feeling unwell, within the isolation period after having tested positive for Covid, if asked to self-isolate after close contact with a positive Covid case or to quarantine after travel.

Take a Lateral Flow Test to check Covid status before attending Alyth unless doubly vaccinated

(a LFT can be ordered online at: <https://www.gov.uk/order-coronavirus-rapid-lateral-flow-tests> or collected from a local pharmacy)

Wear a mask or face covering at all times on the Alyth premises (both indoors and outside) when not in their seat, unless under 12 or exempt from wearing a mask

Respect routes, signs (including no-entry signs), and instructions from staff/volunteers at all times

Acknowledge the needs of others by not shaking hands, hugging or entering into the personal space of those outside their immediate household or bubble

Let us know in advance of any other information of which we need to be aware such as special seating requirements, mask wearing exemption.

By ticking the box on the pre-booking form, I affirm that:

I have read and agree to the terms of the Covenant of Responsibility.

I recognise that non-compliance with the Covenant of Responsibility may jeopardise Alyth's ability to run services indoors in the future, and/or I may be asked not to come to future services.
