

A week of events celebrating Alyth 90

The first 'Alyth' service was held on Friday night, 16 June 1933, at 2 Meadway, NW11. To celebrate, we are delighted to present 10 days of special events in June.

At the heart of our celebration will be a special anniversary service, taking place exactly 90 years to the day of the first service, on Friday 16 June 2023.

Please save the dates:

Sat 10 June Pre-service breakfast

09:15 Welcoming new members, and celebrating volunteers and volunteering at Alyth. In partnership with the Jewish Volunteers Network.
Followed by a choice of three services, which include substantial lay involvement, Kollot, Tefillateinu and Gesher.

Sun 11 June The Amazing Alyth 90 Adventure

10:00 A special morning for primary school age children, including those at SMG. Journey through 9 decades of Alyth life on the Alyth minibus time machine.

Mon 12 June 'The Alyth Social' Alyth 90 Special:

14:00 The Art and Architecture of Alyth with Rabbi Josh

Thur 15 June Alyth Online Lecture: Rabbi Dr Leo Baeck

19:30 with Professor Michael Meyer, Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati
A special online lecture with the world's leading authority on the history of Progressive Judaism, author of a recent biography of Alyth's first president Rabbi Dr Leo Baeck.

Fri 16 June Intergenerational Baby Den

10:30 Inviting our youngest members and their parents and grandparents to chugalug into Shabbat together, joined by special guests from among our oldest generation.

Fri 16 June 90th Anniversary Erev Shabbat service

18:30 As in 1933, this year 16 June is a Friday night. Join us for an extended Erev Shabbat Service to celebrate 90 years since the first Alyth service, with pizza, pimm's and prosecco reception to follow.

Sat 17 June Alyth Archives Breakfast Shiur

09:15 The opportunity to look together at some of the Alyth archives
Followed by a Shabbat Morning Choral Service or special Big Bang 90 service

Sun 18 June Alyth 90 Concert: A celebration of choirs and choral music at Alyth

17:00 With the Alyth Synagogue Choir and special guests: Alyth Choral Society, Interfaith Choir, Refugee Drop-In Choir and Alyth Youth Singers from the generations.